

Paulina Młynarska (born 1970) – a journalist, writer, radio- and TV-producer, connected with Polish and French market. Certified yoga teacher. Columnist, blogger, author of screenplays, songs, poems, and books, and a cabaret artist. Known for her sharp tongue, own opinion, and bold approach toward taboo topics. For more than a decade co-hosted with Dorota Wellman talk-show “Miasto Kobiet”(“City of Women”) on TVN Style. Previously associated with TVP and Polsat Cafe, as well as with radio stations – Tok FM, Radio Zet, RMF FM, Polskie Radio, Radio France Culture, Radio Kolor. Currently collaborates with Discovery Canal +, where we can watch her in the documentary series “Polacy z wyboru” (“Poles by Choice”). Filming the second season of the program starts in April 2018, the broadcast is scheduled for Autumn of 2018. Columnist for various paper and Internet press (Onet, Wysokie Obcasy Extra Praca / High Heels Extra Employment, Well, Gonicz Polski / The Polish Times; formerly – Grazia). Spends more than half of the year in Asia, where she conducts proprietary self-development workshops for women, “The Power Place”, teaches yoga, and improves in her own practice. Co-organizes women’s group trips to Asia. Feminist, skier, traveler, and a mother of an adult daughter.

FOR A LONG, REALLY LONG, TIME – 20 YEARS ALREADY – NOT AN ACTRESS.